DIRECTOR

Gretchen Priest has performed on the Grand Ole Opry, and with artists including Kathy Mattea, Manhattan Transfer, Lyle Lovett and she played for the Pope. She has toured with Celtic rock band, "Ceili Rain" and bluegrass band, "Crucial Smith." Gretchen has taught at many music camps including Alaska Trad Music Camp, CO Roots Camp, Acoustic Music Camp and Mark O'Connor's Fiddle Camp. In 2008, she founded the Musical Heritage Center, AKA the Fiddle & Pick, where she is an educator & director of events featuring traditional music workshops. Her love for traditional music (Irish, Bluegrass, Appalachian Old-Time), inspired her to form her ensemble, "PLAIDGRASS."

Kelsey Wells is an award-winning fiddler from Middle TN. Rooted in the musical heritage of Appalachia, she has a keen interest in the fiddling styles of Western North Carolina and southern Sweden. Kelsey placed 1st in the 2012 Uncle Dave Macon Days traditional fiddle competition and placed 3rd at the 2010 & 2016 Ryman Grand Master Fiddle Competition. turnipthebeetmusic.com

Travis Stuart began playing the banjo as a young teen in Haywood County North Carolina. He is a respected banjo player and multi-instrumentalist known for his rich style and solid accompaniment. Travis has toured the US and internationally with The Stuart Brothers, Dirk Powell Band, Riley Baugus, The Reeltime Travelers, Martha Scanlan and step dancer Ira Bernstein. Travis learned from old-time masters such as Red Wilson, the Smathers Family, Snuffy Jenkins, and Byard Ray. A respected teacher, he has led the JAM Junior Appalachian Musicians program in Haywood County, NC for 13 years.

Eric Frye is from Clay, Alabama and has been playing the Upright Bass since he was eight. In 2003, he joined the Red Stick Ramblers and became an invaluable addition to their brand of Cajun Gypsy Swing. Eric stayed with the band until their final performance in 2014 at the Blackpot Festival, a unique festival-cuisine-culture experience that he continues to help organize. Eric is currently playing with The Revelers, a Cajun/Swamp-Pop/Zydeco outfit based in Lafayette, LA. He teaches bass, banjo and guitar at the Fiddle & Pick.

Bobby Fulcher host of The Cumberland Trail on WDVX, has more than 25 years of experience as a park naturalist and ranger. He currently serves as manager of the Cumberland Trail State Park. With a deep love for the Cumberland region, he has since 1976, recorded and presented musicians from the Cumberland Mountains for the Library of Congress, the Smithsonian Institution, and the Tennessee State Library and Archives, just to name a few. He is a 2017 recipient of the prestigious Folklife Heritage Award, a category of the Governors' Art Awards of Tennessee.
