

June 2025 Newsletter

Hello Everyone!

We had 3 wonderful Spring Recitals at the Fiddle & Pick. Students of Becca Darling and Students of Erin Peet-Lukes and Also students of Stephan Dudash. Very eclectic selections and a variety of styles and instrumentation and fantastic singing. Fun receptions followed and the energy was high! See attached flyer on the details.

Bluegrass Jamming Class field trip to Full Moon Pickin' Party was fun. I learned to get there early to beat the traffic jam. Very successful party and it was sold out! Amazing. Hope to see more of our peeps earlier next time.

There were quite a few Facebook friends commenting on our post showing our beautiful new Fiddle & Pick Sign. Someone even sent in a "before the new" dilapidated sign!

A kind man reached out volunteering to fix the sign for FREE! HUGE THANKS TO Jim Chesney for his generosity. He did a GREAT JOB! Our best sign ever!

WHAT'S THE NEXT BIG THING?

TWO Special KIDS MUSIC DAY KAMPS are coming up! Its not too late to sign up! Mon-Thurs 9am-Noon

See attached flyers for information

Two Age Groups and varieties of levels.

June 16-19 Younger age group: fun variety of dance and themes: Square dance, Line dance, modern and Irish. Also music "Fun" jams, and everyday has "hands on Instruments" trying a variety of instruments and lots of singing. Everyday has snack break!

June 23-26 Older Group will get deeper into jamming on instruments, singing harmony and learning about reading charts, and the bit hit is always the "Band Scramble" Singing, song writing. Snacks included.

KIDS JAM continues selected Mondays. Schedule is on the website.
